EDITORIAL Early Moves In '79

The beginning of 1979 appears to be picking up where '78 left off with regard to distribution. This week, RCA announced distribution agreements with 20th Century-Fox Records and Roadshow while RSO will handle its first outside label, Curtom.

Only 20th is leaving the indie distributor fold for branch alignment while Roadshow and Curtom are switching from other label pacts. But, the emigration from indies to branch has been slow and painful with only a handful of major labels left in the independent system.

Alan Livingston, president of 20th, noted, "Independent distributors really did a job for us, but with the nature of the industry today, it (RCA-distribution) was the best way for us to go."

Mr. Livingston brought up a good point — the nature of the business today. It was not long ago when the business revolved around independent distributors, and as trendy as this business is, that day will probably come again.

If the major labels can expand their staffs to handle the additional product, the independent distributor could disappear as a significant factor in the business. But, if these record companies continue to expand overnight with the instant addition of instant product and do not commensurately increase their coverage, it is likely that the indies may get the business back.

We believe that both forms of distribution are good for the industry. Hopefully, the state of the business in 1979 will not dampen the interests of our future entrepreneurs.

*RSO-CURTOM PACT — Curtom Records has signed with RSO Records for worldwide distribution. Mayfield's Curtom Label Set With RSO For Distribution

by Joey Berlin

LOS ANGELES — All Curtom Records product will be distributed worldwide by RSO Records with an RSO-Curtom label under terms of a new agreement between the companies. The agreement is RSO's first distribution deal with an independent label.

Artists on the Curtom label include Curtom co-president Curtis Mayfield, Linda Clifford, Leroy Hutson and Gavin Christopher. First product to be released under the new arrangement will be Mayfield's single "This Year," set for mid-to-late January, and an album by Clifford in early February.

"This is a major new association for RSO," comments label president Al Coury. "With our success with 14 acts, to add four more acts marks a major company expansion into the pop-R&B-disco area. It's an ideal marriage for us because the Curtom roster is not directly competitive with what we have now."

Curtom, which began as a record company in 1969, had been distributed by Warner Bros. the past four years.

"Leaving Warner Bros. was the hardest decision in my life, but RSO can give us the special attention, feedback and enthusiasm I want," explains Marv Stuart, co-president of Curtom. "RSO proved its capabilities last year, but they're smart enough to realize they won't have monsters every year and they knew they had to expand their base.

"The key to the deal is the personal attention we'll get from RSO," adds Stuart. "I want us to be four or five acts out of 15 or 20, not 150. RSO matched the dollars offered by the big companies and is giving us artistic freedom. With their money behind us I

Major Shake-Ups Hit 20th And ABC Labels

LOS ANGELES — 20th Century-Fox Records and ABC Records made major personnel changes late last week, it was learned at presstime.

20th is dismissing approximately 40 people as a result of the recently signed distribution deal with RCA, according to label president Alan Livingston. Among those affected are Jack Hakim, vice president of international, Barry Goldberg, national promotion director and Jim Fisher, director of national sales. Because of the label's transition from independent to branch distribution, sales was hardest hit.

At ABC approximately 30 people were fired Jan. 5. A label spokesperson said that the dismissals, which were mostly in the accounting department, were aimed at streamlining operations. Some members of the A&R and advertising staffs were also let go.

20th Cent., Roadshow Distrib. Pacts Revealed At RCA Meet

by Ken Terry

NASHVILLE — A distribution deal between RCA Records and 20th Century Records and the formation of a new pop label by RCA-Nashville were the two most dramatic events announced at RCA's eastern regional sales and promotion meetings here last week. Held at the Opryland Hotel January 2-4, the meetings brought together approximately 250 members of RCA Records' field sales and promotion force, as well as label executives based in New York, Los Angeles and Nashville. A similar conference for field people from the western region of the country was held January 4-6 in Dallas.

Among the other major announcements made at the meetings were the appointment of Ray Harris as division vice president of black music marketing (see accompanying story), the acquisition by RCA of the movie soundtrack to "Hair" and the original cast album of the new Stephen Sondheim musical, "Sweeney Todd," and a worldwide distribution agreement with Roadshow Records.

Robert Summer, president of the company, announced the 20th Century deal at a dinner commemorating the 50th anniversary of RCA's acquisition of the Victor Talking Machine Company, which later became RCA Records. RCA will distribute 20th Century product on a worldwide basis, although in some countries, existing deals with other companies will have to be phased out over the next few years. Major acts on the 20th Century roster include Dan Hill, Gene Chandler and Edwin Starr. In addition, several new Barry White LPs are part of the distribution pact.

Roadshow Records, headed by Fred Frank and Sid Maurer, has a proven winner in Enchantment, which will be releasing a new album in the first quarter of this year. The pact with Roadshow also provides for RCA to distribute product of Nature's Music, Inc., a Roadshow-affiliated production company headed by Richard Mack, who, together with Frank, has signed such artists as Al Wilson and Touch of Class.

RCA-Nashville's new contemporary music label is called Free Flight Records (see accompanying story). Directed by Jerry Bradley, division vice president of Nashville Operations for RCA, the new label has its own promotion force, reporting to Joe Galante, division vice president of marketing, Nashville, for RCA. Concentrating on pop, rock and disco acts, Free Flight represents an expansion and consolidation of the autonomy given to the Nashville operation last spring (Cash Box, May 27).

New Sense Of Confidence

Both Summer and Dick Carter, division vice president of field marketing for RCA, stressed the major strides that the company has made in the past year. "We have introduced new artists with lasting career potential, we have become a major profit-contributor to the RCA Corporation, and we are only in the beginning of the most aggressive growth effort in the company's history," Summer stated. He added that, contrary to a widely-held belief, the record industry is not recession-proof, and every label must constantly re-evaluate its position.

In a marketing meeting, Carter said that "the direction and momentum of this company has significantly changed in the past year." In Carter's view, the turnaround was sparked by the demand for Elvis product which exploded after the singer's death in 1977.

Carter told Cash Box that he is aiming for a fairly even year-round release schedule, so that the label's major releases do not pile up in any particular period. However, RCA has an unusually heavy release schedule in the first quarter, including a just-released John Denver album and new product by Jefferson Starship, Bonnie Tyler, Evelyn "Champagne" King, Enchantment, Charo, Toby Beau, Mose Jones, Richard T. Bear, Triumph, Pure Prairie League, Floyd Cramer, Willie Nelson, Jim Ed Brown and Helen Cornelius, and The First National Guitar Quartet, featuring Chet Atkins. In addition, a number of artists will have debut albums on RCA in the first quarter, including Max Demian, Gichy Dan, Evie Sands and, on Salsoul, Instant Funk.

The biggest priorities, of course, are proven sellers like Denver, the Starship and "Champagne" King. Due to production

Flood Of Superstar Albums Sets Tone Of First Quarter

by Leo Sacks

NEW YORK — January and February releases, which used to be oriented toward new artists, now include a fairly heavy proportion of superstar albums. This year, the list of such records includes new LPs by John Denver, Jefferson Starship, and the Bee Gees, all of which carry an $8.98 list. Other big acts that are scheduled to issue new LPs this quarter are George Benson, Elvis Costello, Cheap Trick, Raydio, Abba, Supertramp, Anne Murray, Quincy Jones, and Gerry Rafferty.

Why weren't these superstar albums released in time to take advantage of the Christmas selling season? The fear of getting caught in a pressing crunch was a factor for some labels. It played a part, for example, in RSO's decision to postpone the release of the new Bee Gees album ("Spirits Having Flown") until next month, according to Bob Edson, senior vice president and general manager of the company.

Citing the "distinct possibility" of an early spring tour by the group, as well as their appearance on the UNICEF concert special that will be televised nationwide this week, Edson commented that "the mode of thinking has definitely changed to get a better balance of releases for the year. In the past, companies have overloaded their fourth quarter in an attempt to compensate for the first, especially if they're on a Jan. 1-Dec. 31 fiscal year basis. But that's changing now."

RSO's projected first quarter releases include new LPs by Marcy Levy, Steve Kipner, Yvonne Elliman, the London Symphony Orchestra and the Soundtrack to "Moment by Moment."

No More Peaks And Valleys

CBS Records will issues seven new releases during the next eight weeks, headed by Teddy Pendergrass, Cheap Trick, Johnny Mathis, Barry White, Deniece Williams, the Manhattans and Elvis Costello. According to Paul Smith, senior vice president and general manager of marketing for the company, "Peaks and

MCA Dist. Holds First Sales Meet

LOS ANGELES — MCA Distributing Corp. this week is holding its first national sales meeting since Al Bergamo was appointed president to "lay out our marketing plan for the first quarter of this year," according to Bergamo.

Sales personnel from the company's eastern branches will attend a meeting at the Diplomat Hotel in Hollywood, Fla. Jan. 7-9, while those working in the western regions will meet in La Costa, Calif. Jan. 12-14.

Bergamo said in addition to mapping out a marketing strategy for the first part of 1979, the meetings will serve as a place to work out the restructuring of some branches and changes in the company's method of operation for 1979. "There will also be announcements of some management changes," Bergamo said.

Presentations will be made to introduce new product coming from MCA, Infinity and their distributed labels. Bergamo said, "There will be no artists, managers or lawyers present; it is strictly the MCA sales force."

Sylvester first burst on the music scene as the gay black singer and star of the Cockettes, an outrageous homosexual musical revue based on San Francisco which was known for its zany, glittery sartorial tastes.

Born into a large, middle-class family in Los Angeles Sylvester was raised in the church and by the age of eight he had become somewhat of a gospel star, traveling the gospel circuit on the east coast and throughout the south. In the late '60s, however, he traveled to San Francisco and joined the Cockettes. Later, Sylvester opted for a solo career and for almost two years he performed at the Rickshaw Lounge in Chinatown under a woman's name, Ruby Blue.

In 1973 Sylvester signed with Blue Thumb Records and eventually recorded three LPs for that label — "Lights Out San Francisco," "Scratch My Flower" and "Bazaar." In 1977 R&B producer Harvey Fuqua signed Sylvester and produced his first album for the Fantasy label, "Sylvester."

Special Radio Advertising Day Slated For NARM Convention

LOS ANGELES — A major audio-visual presentation, two speakers and the announcement of the winners of the first NARM Radio Advertising Award will highlight a special general session devoted to radio advertising on March 25 at the 1979 NARM Convention in Hollywood, Fla.

"The session devoted to radio and radio advertising is part of the NARM master plan to spotlight at each conventioin one of the advertising media utilized by our members," explains Joe Cohen, NARM's executive vice president. "At the 1978 Convention in New Orleans our audio-visual presentation emphasized 'the media mix.' This year it's radio. At subsequent conventions we hope to have in-depth coverage of television and print to complete the cycle. The radio advertising presentation will be a significant part of the program for the 1979 regional meetings as well."

Radio Awards

The NARM Radio Advertising Awards were created in co-operation with the Radio Advertising Bureau, which runs similar competitions in conjunction with a number of trade associations. It is the first competition in the recorded music industry recognizing excellence in radio spots specifically for the industry's product.

Entry forms have been mailed to the NARM regular membership and 3,000 members of the RAB. Competition judges will include Hal Jackson, vice president and program director of WLIB-WBLS/New York; Pat Levine, Grey Advertising; Fred Lief, McCann Erickson; Neil McIntyre, Record World; and James Tyrrell, Epic/Portrait/Associated Labels. Miles David, RAB president, will present the awards at the convention.

Audio-Visual Presentation

The audio-visual presentation, entitled "Tuning Radio To Record Profit," will reflect the input of many industry sources representing the retailer, rackjobber and manufacturer. The development of the presentation has been monitored by co-chairmen John Marmaduke of Hastings/Western Merchandisers and Tyrrell. Production of the presentation is being handled by Capitol Records, under the direction of Dan Davis, creative services vice president.

Also working on presentation are Morris Baumstein, Young & Rubicam; Jon Peisinger, Polydor; Steve Salsberg, Lieberman Enterprises; Mark Schulman, Atlantic Records; Irv Super, Sam Goody; Elliot Gorlin, Record World; Joseph Bressi, Camelot Music and Morris Weisman, King Karol.

"The audio-visual presentation will zero in on creativity, how to buy time, and the use of radio advertising as part of a total marketing strategy," says Marmaduke. "It will reach top and middle management at a very practical, grass-roots level."

Speakers

Speakers at the special session will be Chuck Blore and Kal Rudman. A writer and producer of radio commercials, Blore was program director at KFWB/Los Angeles when the station dominated the rating services and also spent five years as a DJ in Arizona. Rudman is the publisher and editor of "Friday Morning Quarterback." He will wrap up the session speaking on "Money Music: The Brand New Technology," an overview of the rapidly changing format in radio and how these changes affect every level of the recording industry.

Retail And Wholesale Sales Gains Forecast

LOS ANGELES — Retail sales are expected to rise by 10 percent to approximately $857 billion in 1979, while sales of merchant wholesalers are expected to grow 11 percent to about $810 billion, the U.S. Department of Commerce predicted recently.

The 10 percent retail sales increase would be the same as the percentage rise in 1978 when sales were estimated at nearly $780 billion. The wholesale projection follows an estimated 14 percent gain in 1978 to approximately $730 billion.

The projections are among the 200 manufacturing and service industry forecasts to be included in the department's annual publication, U.S. Industrial Outlook, prepared by the Industry and Trade Administration with the assistance of the Office of the Chief Economist.

Rundgren Sues Union Of British Musicians

NEW YORK — Bearsville recording artist Todd Rundgren and Utopia have filed suit in London against the British Musicians Union in an attempt to break the union's stranglehold on visiting musicians and their opportunities to play and broadcast in Britain.

The legal battle follows the union's refusal to let Rundgren broadcast a live show from The Venue in London in December of last year and to transmit television coverage of another show to Europe and South America.

Citing what he felt to be an illegal interference with his right to perform, Rundgren told a press conference in London, "It's amazing this practice has never been challenged before. We can understand the union's desire to protect the British musician, but the rights of non-British artists to communicate in Great Britain is also at stake." Rundgren also pointed out that British musicians regularly employ live broadcasts as a marketing tool in the U.S.

NEW FACES TO WATCH

Grey & Hanks

No one who knows Zane Grey and Len Ron Hanks was surorised bv the duo's engaging debut album "You Fooled Me." Well, almost no one. "The album fooled me," laughs Grey, "I didn't expect it to sound so good."

Veteran songwriters and musicians, Grey and Hanks are professionals who know their art and how to put it to good use. Yet despite such an introduction, Grey and Hanks stand (or rather dance) on a new threshold in their careers. Already well-respected writers, they are gearing up to perform their music live for the first time.

The pair met in Chicago while attending college. Grey was drawn to words. Hanks was a capable pianist, classically-trained yet irrepressibly funky. Collaboration was an on-off affair and along the way, Hanks spent time in road bands backing the Chi-Lites and the Staple Singers.

Chicagoan Jerry Butler was attracted by Grey and Hanks' talent and inducted them into his writing workshop for local talent which was backed by Chappell publishing. The pair stayed with the workshop for more than three years before Butler arranged for them to move to Hollywood.

Butler cut four Grey and Hanks' songs, for Mercury and Motown, including "Playing On You," a hit in 1974. The duo also wrote "(Every Time I Turn Around) Back In Love Again" which established L.T.D. as a platinum act. L.T.D. has since recorded more Grey and Hanks compositions and Tavares has also utilized the duo's material.

With their track record as songwriters providing momentum, Grey and Hanks then moved to become a recording and performing act in their own right. Their manager Don Sorkin took a demo tape to Neil Portnow of RCA who expressed strong interest in the act. A five-year contract was signed and a demonstration tape was sweetened and remixed. The resulting single, "You Fooled Me," bulleted into the Top 20 in mid-November on the Black Contemporary Top 100 Singles chart. Particularly strong in the east, the track paved the way for the follow-up LP which was RCA's final release of 1978. The LP entered the Black Contemporary Album chart at #56 bullet last week. "Dancin'," the recently released second single is already creating strong R&B and disco reaction.

"Our music is very danceable," says Grey, "and disco is an important way for R&B to cross. We now have an outlet and we are going to pump it. I can see making a lot of albums. The more we do it, the easier it gets."

Currently working on assembling a national tour, the duo recently swept Washington, Richmond, Norfolk, Boston, New York, Philadelphia and Chicago on a promotional tour of discos.

"We felt the excitement in the clubs," says Hanks, "now we can't wait to get out to halls with the band and entertain. That's the name of the game."

ADC Band

Although the ADC Band is an exciting new funk band from Detroit, their involvement in contemporary black music extends back to the late 1950's.

That's because Johnnie Mae Matthews, the group's manager, producer, musical teacher, and "Mother Funker" has been a formidable part of the Detroit music scene for over 20 years, not only as a skilled producer and executive, but also as an outstanding blues vocalist. She has been closely involved with the group that is now the ADC Band for the past ten years, an unusally long time in the music business. But again, the explanation is simple, because Johnnie Mae Matthews happens to be the mother of two ADC band members, Audrey and Artwell Matthews.

In fact, Artwell and Mark Patterson, who started the band, grabbed Johnnie Mae's attention when they were 15 years old and playing Jimi Hendrix records in the basement. Soon Matthews and Patterson began practicing the tunes themselves, and as Johnnie Mae recalls, "they had some real talent. When they came up and asked for advice, I was happy to give it to them. Besides, if I was going to have to listen to the music in my house, I wanted to make sure it sounded good."

Matthews and Patterson eventually formed a group, Black Nazty, which played local high schools and clubs in the Detroit area. "You name it, we played it," Matthews says. "We just kept doing the music, and Johnnie Mae was right there all the time. She never gave up, and we learned so much from her."

Regrouping themselves in Detroit, in 1977, the band changed their name again to the ADC Band, which stands for a form of social welfare, Aid To Dependent Children. "We knew what it's like to be poor," Matthews states, "and what it's like to struggle. So we want our music to be for the people, and we've always tried to please the people."

The group also assembled their current lineup of Mike "Moneystone" Judkins on keyboards and vocals; Curtis Hobson on lead guitar; James Maddox on vocals and percussion; Debra Smith on vocals;. Artwell Matthews on drums; Patterson on bass; and Audrey Matthews on vocals. By early 1978, they began refining material that included the song, "Long Stroke." Woody Wilson, president of the Detroit-based Fee Productions, heard the revamped group and promptly signed them to a production deal.

Wilson sent a tape of "Long Stroke" to Henry Allen at Cotillion Records, and Allen immediately signed the ADC Band. According to Judkins, their debut album, "Long Stroke," represents "the best this band has been doing, going back to the influence of Johnnie Mae Matthews and our kind of funk. We've listened closely to a lot of people, including James Brown, Sly and the Rolling Stones, but this is going to show people that the ADC Band are doin' it TODAY!"

RIAA Plans Seminars On C'right Registration

NEW YORK — Because many copyright registration forms for recordings have been improperly executed, resulting in rejection by the Copyright Office, the Recording Industry Association of America has scheduled two seminars to help train record company personnel in the proper filing of copyright registrations.

The seminars have been scheduled to take place at the Elizabethan Room of the Essex House Hotel in New York on January 22 and in the Colonnade Room of the Continental Hyatt Hotel in Los Angeles on January 25. Both sessions will run from 9 a.m. to approximately 1 p.m.

The seminars will be conducted by Mildred Henninger, head of the performing arts section, examining division, of the Copyright Office. Admission to the seminars will be free to representatives of all record companies, whether or not they are members of RIAA. Companies are requested to send those personnel who are actually charged with filing the forms.

To arrange for admission to either of the two sessions, the RIAA requests East Coast-based record companies to call its New York office (212-688-3778) and West Coast-based companies to phone its Los Angeles office (213-278-5500).

BLEARY EYES — Nothing earthshaking at home after Christmas and New Year's this year (on the east coast, at least), but in Peking, the good comrades brought in the New Year (and resumption of diplomatic relations with the United States) in grand style. The late chairman, Mao Tse-Tung, may not have approved, but Communist Party officials in Mao suits were disco-ing on down to the sounds of the Bee Gees at a party celebrating their renewal of ties with the U.S. . . . Meanwhile, in New York, exciting music abounded on an unusually warm New Year's Eve that was marred only by reports of scattered attacks on revelers in Times Square. At Avery Fisher Hall, Devo held forth, despite an offstage stabbing incident, at the Palladium, David Johansen rocked in the New Year and Richard Robinson opened the show with a magic act, accompanied by Lenny Kaye on guitar; Southside Johnny and the Asbury Jukes jolted New Jersey at the Capitol; Robert Gordon, who opened for Southside, went over to Max's Kansas City later on; John Cale was at CBGBs; and the Talking Heads were at the Beacon Theatre. Whew! Good rocking tonight.

GOFFIN RE-SIGNS WITH SCREEN GEMS — Songwriter Gerry Goffin has re-signed his contract with Screen Gems/EMI Music Inc. Goffin, who has collaborated on such rock classics as "Up On The Roof," "Hey Girl," and "Will You Still Love Me Tomorrow?" also celebrated his 15th anniversary year with Screen Gems. Pictured (l-r) are Lester Sill, president of Screen Gems, and Goffin.

This stand-out Brazilian vocalist is deserving of a much wider audience, especially after Earth, Wind & Fire used his "Brazilian Rhyme" on their "All 'N All" LP. Wayne Shorter digs him also . . . Signed to Capricorn Tim Krekel, formerly with Jimmy Buffett, and Two Guns, a blazing band for Oklahoma . . . Danny and Daegal Bennett, sons of singer Tony Bennett, have a new wave band called Neon playing at Great Gildersleeve's January 9 . . . ALBUM REVIEWS

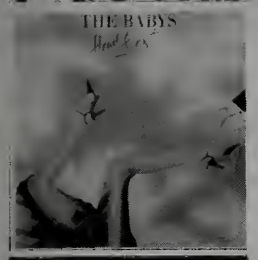
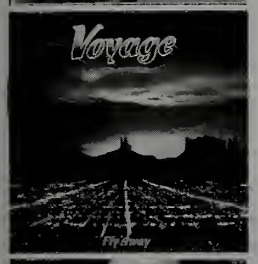
ARMED FORCES — Elvis Costello & The Attractions — Columbia 35709 — Producer: Nick Lowe — List: 7.98 — Bar Coded

On "Armed Forces," this angry singer/songwriter continues to move away from the sparsely-arranged, guitar-dominated style of his debut album to a more elaborately-produced approach which spotlights multi-layered keyboard textures, plus extensive utilization of backing harmonies and vocal overdubs. The dense, richly melodic tone of the album adds a new tension and sense of intrigue to Costello's compositions, expanding upon, without sacrificing, the snarl, sarcasm or wit of last year's model. A brilliant effort by one of rock's most rewarding figures.



HEAD FIRST — The Babys — Chrysalis CHR 1195 — Producer: Ron Nevison — List: 7.98 — Bar Coded

For its third album, the Babys primarily stick to the same winning formula which launched its "Broken Heart" album and the single, "Isn't it Time." Produced again by Ron Nevison, "Head First" showcases the group's ability to fuse tender, romantic melodies with crisp, hard-rocking guitar rhythms. Equally balanced between ballads, mid-tempo tunes and potent rockers, the LP is already garnering extensive Top 40 airplay (with the single "Every Time I Think Of You") and AOR action.



FLY AWAY — Voyage — Marlin/TK 2225 — Producers: Marc Chantereau, Pierre-Alain Dahan, Slim Pezin and Roger Tokarz — List: 7.98

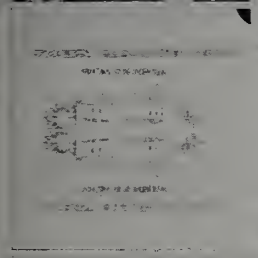
Already receiving heavy disco activity, this group is now ready to make its mark in the pop and black contemporary markets. "Fly Away" contains seven songs, all of which are suitable for the dance floor and boast steady rhythms, clean production and exuberant arrangements. In addition, lead singer Sylvia Mason contributes high-soaring vocals on "Gone With The Music" and "Souvenirs."

NEW ORLEANS HEAT — Albert King — Tomato TOM 7022 — Producer: Allen R. Toussaint — List: 7.98

Teaming up with Allen Toussaint plus members of the Meters, Albert King on "New Orleans Heat" has unleashed an invigorating nine-song effort which spotlights his stinging guitar work and charismatic vocals. Effectively conveying a warm, infectious feeling throughout the album, King is in peak form on such numbers as "The Very Thought Of You" and "Angel Of Mercy." A stellar blues affair.

KINSMAN DAZZ — 20th Century Fox T-574 — Producers: Philip Bailey, Tommy Vicari and Ralph Johnson — List: 7.98

With its debut album, this R&B/pop configuration has created a potent, highly rhythmic formula which features bristling percussion, infectious lead vocals and harmonies, plus crisp, biting horn charts. In addition, the group is assisted here by members of Earth, Wind & Fire and Patrice Rushen. Top cuts here include "Forget About Lovin' You" and "Dazzberry Jam."

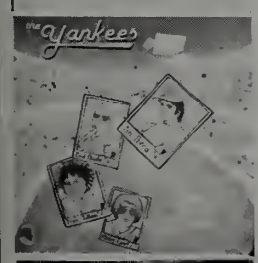


HEADIN' DOWN INTO THE MYSTERY BELOW — John Hartford — Flying Fish FF 063 — Producer: Mike Melford — List: 7.98

When Hartford isn't on tour he's likely to be found behind the wheel of the Julia Belle Swain riverboat on the Ohio River where he serves as a licensed captain. On this LP Hartford combines his vocations to produce an excellent folk concept album about life on the river in the mold of his Grammy-winning "Mark Twang" LP. This LP is true to his one-man stage shows with Hartford tap-dancing rhythms while providing vocals and all instrumentation on banjo, fiddle and guitar.

WATER BEARER — Sally Oldfield — Chrysalis CHR 1211 — Producer: Sally Oldfield — List: 7.98 — Bar Coded

On her debut Chrysalis album, Oldfield has emerged with a plaintive, sparkling collection of traditional folk-based material. Oldfield is a versatile instrumentalist, playing a variety of guitars and keyboards plus handling vocal and production duties. Featuring such flowing, affecting tunes as the title track, "Weaver" and "Night Of The Hunter's Moon," this LP is deserving of mainstream pop attention.



HIGH 'N' INSIDE — The Yankees — Big Sound BSLP 037 — Producers: Thomas Cavalier and Richard Robinson — List: 7.98

Led by clean-up batter and former rock critic Jon Tiven, the Yankees have concocted a fiery assortment of power-play rock tunes on this debut outing. The Yankees (the rock group) compose catchy material, perform bristling, crisp guitar-rock, and most important of all, exhibit their own raucous personality. Tiven's spirited guitar work is the LP's highlight, although his lead vocals clearly lack range and authority. Suitable for AOR airplay.

OR DURVS — Lu Janis — Inphasion 3900 — Producer: Pardo Jones — List: 7.98

Inphasion Records launches its label with the release of "Or Durvs," a varied collection of straight-ahead rock and Dr. John-like funk by Lu Janis. Displaying a rugged, throaty voice which is suited perfectly to his style, Janis also proves to be a promising songwriter on this LP, as witnessed by cuts like "Living For My Vices," "Juliette" and especially "Roll Me Over," which recalls the engaging Southern flavor of the Doobie Brothers' "Black Water."

POINTS WEST

BACK TO WORK — Recording artists are wasting no time getting started in 1979, as a number of acts are already reported working on new albums. Although they haven't actually gotten to the point of recording yet, the Rolling Stones are likely to be both in the studio soon and back on the road, now that Keith Richards' court hassles are in the past . . . "Enlightened Rogues" is the title of the new LP the reunited Allman Bros. are working on . . . Graham Parker has been in L.A. recently mastering his first LP for Arista. A preliminary release date for the album has it coming in March. At one point, it was to be titled "Mercury Poisoning," after a track on the record, but that has been discarded and no new title has been chosen . . . Members of The Doors have been at Cherokee here editing "Roadhouse Blues" from the album "An American Prayer" for release as a single. The song, which has been picking up favorable reaction from AOR and Top 40 programmers, should be released at the end of this month . . . A new singer-songwriting duo, Phillips & Macleod, signed with Polydor recently and have been recording their label debut at A&M studios. They hosted a party at the studio and recorded it for inclusion on one track for the LP called "City of Lights," which is, naturally, about Paris. They had friends show up and make French-sounding party noises for the cut. The album, produced by Tony Peluso, should be out in March. The group is managed by Renaissance Management . . . The new album from Public Image, starring John "Johnny Rotten" Lydon, is already out in England and Warners hopes to release it here shortly.

TWISTIN' THE NIGHT AWAY — Continental Twist '79 was the hep party of the year for those in L.A., it seems, and the one which was attended by all of the real human beings (except this one, who was inexplicably stricken at the last minute with a severe, but temporary, case of sobering sanity, in the absence of the usual case of Coors). Among the many highlights of the evening were Art Fein's red-hot Louisiana style accordian solo (supported by Bill "Fingers" Liebowitz on washboard and yo-yo, Bob "Hep Rocko" Merlis' tribute to Elvis (Costello, that is), Jerry "Swamp Dogg" Williams' homemade gumbo and a countdown to midnight which led straight into a performance by Ray Campi and His Rockabilly Rebels, described by at least one party-goer as "the rockin-est." Some of the celebs who showed up were Tom Waits, Jay Ferguson, the good Dr. Demento, "Wildman" Tony Conn, Johnny Legend aka Martin "Maddog" Margolies and the infamous Richard Meltzer, to name a few. The lucky door prize winners were awarded lava lights and luminescent brains, while the winner of the twist contest won the grand prize — a beautiful new mobile home, courtesy of Tonka trucks. All in all it was the swingin-est, and we vow to be there next year, even if we have to pawn our leisure suits, jogging shoes and mood rings for bus fare.

REFORM VISIT — ABC recording artist Lenny Williams (right) recently took Christmas presents to the Fred C. Nelles School for Boys, a correctional institution in Whittier, where he had been a resident twenty years ago.*

SAN FRANCISCO BLUES — The Blues Brothers made national TV news shows when a portion of their set at San Francisco's Winterland New Year's Eve/closing concert/party was aired over CBS. After their performance, Elwood and Joliet Jake Blues (alias Dan Aykroyd and John Belushi) moved on to the Jefferson Starship house where that group was hosting a final salute to 1978. Belushi and his wife Judy also celebrated their anniversary there, where much of the Saturday Night Live cast was present. Members of Blondie and the Runaways were also present, after having played shows at the Oakland Coliseum and Cow Palace, respectively. Both groups are handled by American Entertainment Management, which reports that the Runaways will soon begin filming of their first full-length feature, "We're All Crazy Now!" The film, produced by Z Productions, features the group members as themselves . . . Ian Copeland is heading a "new wave department" for the Paragon Agency. It handles booking for six English new wave acts, including The Police, XTC, The Only Ones, Chelsea, Ultravox and The Squeeze, all of which should be touring here this year . . . Foreigner members are moving back and forth between studios in Los Angeles and New York working on their third Atlantic LP . . . Dave Edmunds and Nick Lowe are both working on new LPs.

RECRUITS APPLY HERE — Elvis Costello's new "Armed Forces" album, to be released this week, should convince those who had any remaining doubts that he is among the most important rock figures to emerge in the 1970s. Where "This Year's Model" primarily focused and sharpened the promise exhibited in "My Aim Is True," the new album takes significant strides, both musically and lyrically, beyond the first two. The most immediate example is "(What's So Funny 'Bout) Peace, Love And Un-

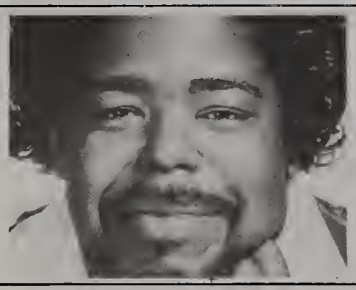
FEATURE PICKS

DONNA SUMMER (Casablanca NB 959)
Heaven Knows (3:37) (Rick's Music/Say Yes Music — BMI) (D. Summer/G. Moroder/P. Bellotte)

Donna Summer is joined by Joe Esposito from Brooklyn Dreams on this rousing follow-up to "MacArthur Park." Sweeping strings, percussion embellishments and dancing beat provide the backing for the fine, spirited singing. Esposito has a deep shimmering voice while Donna reigns during soaring moments. All formats take note.

ANNE MURRAY (Capitol P-4675)
I Just Fall In Love Again (2:47) (Peso Music/Hobby Horse Music/Cotton Pickin' Songs — BMI/ASCAP) (Dorff/Sklerov/Lloyd/Herbstritt)

Anne Murray garnered a Top 10 single with the tender ballad "You Needed Me." This follow-up single from the upcoming "New Kind Of Feeling" LP is another warm and engaging effort that ought to appeal to AC and other pop formats. A flowing piano part, string backing, acoustic guitars and easy but stout beat are the ingredients of this ode to love.



BARRY WHITE (20th Century TC-2395)
Just The Way You Are (4:04) (Joelsongs — BMI) (B. Joel)

Billy Joel is one hell of a writer. From first listen, it was apparent that this modern day classic would be covered by a variety of artists. Jazz players have offered their interpretations. This version by Barry White is a fine effort. White sings slow and convincingly. Strings, backing singers, upfront snare beat and uncluttered arrangement make this work for across-the-board action.

MICHAEL JOHNSON (EMI America 8008)
Sailing Withoug A Sail (3:10) (Captain Crystal Music — ASCAP) (B. LaBounty/R. Freeland)

"The Michael Johnson Album" is without doubt one of the finest releases of the year gone by. After spawning several hits, EMI is releasing this melodic and beautiful ballad. An impactful, smooth-rolling chorus and an elegant arrangement of guitars and keyboards make this a Top 20 candidate. The singing is of unusual quality.

KANSAS (Kirshner/CBS ZS8 4280)
Lonely Wind (2:51) (Don Kirshner Music — BMI) (S. Walsh)

The live "Two For The Show" album is inching upward in the Top 20 on the pop album chart. This textured single ought to give a push. An aggressive piano intro swings down to a tender ballad but the mood is cranked back up by join-in dashing drumming, synthesizer backing and harmony vocals. With good singing and a to-the-point edit, this ought to make pop lists.

PAT TRAVERS (Polydor PD 14529)
Go All Night (3:23) (Chappell Music — ASCAP) (P. Travers)

The first single from Travers' "Heat In The Street" album, this track is what you would expect from Travers. A go-for-broke rock and roller with heavy fuzz guitar work, funky rhythms and fine lead and backing vocals. Tambourine and well phrased bass line add teeth to the bite. Choppy and rhythmically interesting, this track is suited to AOR and pop lists.

RUFUS (ABC AB-12444)
Keep It Together (Declaration of Love) (3:40) (Marsaint Music/Warner-Tamerlane Pub. — BMI) (A. Toussaint)

Chaka is not with Rufus on this 45 but this talented quintet delivers an effective, well-paced ballad which will appeal to R&B and pop lists. Easy guitar work, piano moods, gentle beat, strings and upward movement are bolstered by a broad chorus and punchy traditions.

FIREFALL (Atlantic 3544)
Goodbye, I Love You (3:23) (Stephen Stills Music — BMI) (R. Roberts)

This track from the "Elan" album opens with an evocative sax line and gentle conga beat. Organ backing, tambourine and a lyric about the inadequacies of a lover's love create a gentle swirling mood. The lead and harmony vocals are silky and emotional. Suited to pop lists.

SINGLES TO WATCH

DIANA ROSS (Motown M 1456)
What You Gave Me (3:38) (Jobete Music — ASCAP) (N. Ashford/V. Simpson)

Conga backing, upfront beat and funky, distinctive keyboard lines set up this smooth ballad from the "Ross" album. Strings sweeten while Ross and friends offer light, melodic and inviting vocals. The chorus is a particular high point. Suited to R&B, pop and dancing lists.

EMERSON LAKE & PALMER (Atlantic 3555)
All I Want Is You (2:33) (Palm Beach International — ASCAP) (Lake/Sinfield)

"Love Beach" is the name of this famous trio's most recent album. This single bears the distinctive imprint of the smooth, effective singing by Greg Lake, powerful drumming by Carl Palmer and synthesizer inventiveness by Keith Emerson. Tightly structured, this track has Top 40 potential.

SISTER SLEDGE (Cotillion/Atlantic 44245)
He's The Greatest Dancer (3:31) (Chic Music — BMI) (N. Rodgers/B. Edwards)

Produced and written by Bernard Edwards and Nile Rodgers of Chic, this single from the "We Are Family" album has a fine rhythm track with firm beat and circling rhythm guitar work. Strings sweeten and the vocals by Sister Sledge members are strong and engaging. Suited to R&B and pop formats.

THELMA HOUSTON (Tamla/Motown T 54297F)
Saturday Night, Sunday Morning (3:39) (Colgems — EMI Music/Jobete Music — ASCAP) (N. Helms/M. Botler)

Produced by Hal Davis, this track rides a funky wave and Houston's soulful singing. Ticking rhythm guitar, tight, upfront beat, horn backing, overhead strings and congas merge successfully in this muscular ballad. Well-suited to disco, R&B and pop lists.

DENISE LA SALLE (ABC AB-12443)
P.A.R.T.Y. (Where It Is) (3:26) (Warner-Tamerlane/Ordena Music — BMI) (D. La Salle)

"Under The Influence" is the name of the album and this captivating track ought to put R&B and dancing lists under La Salle's influence. A swinging blues feel, romping beat, fluttering strings, punctuating horns and funky keyboards makes this a stand-out track.

BILLY BURNETTE (Polydor PD 14530)
Shoo-Be-Doo (2:34) (Baby Chick Music/Royal Oak Music — BMI/ASCAP) (B. Burnette/M. Smotherman)

Double-timing marshal drum beat, slide guitar touches and excellent low key lead singing make this a good candidate for sleeper success. Tambourine adds a percussive brightness. Burnette is joined by a female vocal which makes the track reminiscent of Clapton and Marcy Levy. Check this one out for pop lists.

LEE OSKAR (Elektra E-46002)
Feelin' Happy (3:39) (Far Out Music/Ikke-Bad Music/Radio Active Material — ASCAP/Milwaukee Music — BMI) (L. Oskar/G. Errico/B. Vega/H. Eberitzsch/T. Fullerton)

Brisk, funky keyboard, bass and percussion work is joined by blustery horns and south-of-the-border loose chant to make this track of interest to jazz and crossover lists. Trumpet solo and vocal scatting add spice.

DR. JOHN (Horizon/A&M HZ-117)
Dance The Night Away With You (3:35) (Irving Music/Skull Music/Starybo Music — BMI) (M. Rebennack/D. Pomus)

This single from the "City Lights" album opens with whimsically rag piano and slap-dash drums and New Orleans flavor horns. The good doctor provides distinctive stoned-style singing and orchestrates a hip-rolling good time. Check out this light-hearted pop stopper.

SWITCH (Gordy/Motown G 7163F)
I Wanna Be Closer (3:45) (Jobete Music — ASCAP) (J. Jackson)

A melodic sax solo opens this track and leads into an a cappella vocal line which displays in a nutshell Switch's musical style: soulful arrangements which are highlighted by fine harmonizing vocals. R&B lists.

KRYPTON (A&M 2115)
Can You Read My Mind (3:45) (Warner-Tamerlane Pub. — BMI) (J. Williams/L. Bricusse)

This cover of the love theme from the "Superman" film is an uptempo, danceable ode to the Man of Steel. A simple rising vocal line, nice harmonies and steady high-hat, punctuating horns and sweeping strings make this track appeal to dancing lists.

JIVA (Polydor PD 14526)
That Scene Again (2:44) (Homefire Music/Arti Music — BMI) (M. Lanning)

The name of the album is "Still Life" and the music is lively rock and roll. Heavy fuzz guitar dominates this track with strong support from a stout beat and organ backing. The vocals are rough-and-ready and professional. This track is well-suited to Top 40 formats who are looking for an edge.

SONDRA LOCKE (Elektra E-46007)
I Seek The Night (1:58) (Stonebridge Music — ASCAP) (N. Diamond)

Taken from the film "Every Which Way But Loose," this track has bright slide guitar, moderate beat country backing beat and folksy singing by Locke with backing singers providing able support. Country lists.

THE REFLECTIONS (RCA JB-11408)
Boogie City (3:30) (Good News/A-Dish-A-Tunes — BMI) (Robert/Richard & J. Poindexter)

With the steady kick drum thumping beneath a constellation of horns, rhythm guitars, handclaps and strings, this funky boogie track ought to interest uptempo R&B lists. The vocals are gritty and the action is fast.

SARAVA (Roadshow/RCA JH-11454)
Sarava (3:26) (Andrew Scott — ASCAP) (N. Nash/M. Leigh)

This title song from the Broadway musical "Sarava" has a disco beat and feel and silky floating vocals which are off-set by streetwise interjections. A strong piano break and good rhythm track make this of interest to dancing lists.

THE DELLS (ABC AB-12440)
(You Bring Out) The Best In Me (3:23) (Perk's Music) (D. Carter/J. Ellis)

A flowing arrangement of strings, horns and funky rhythm section provide the musical inspiration for this R&B ballad dedicated to a special love. Steady high-hat beat and lumbering bass line add a swinging percussive feel. Fine lead and harmony vocals.

SYNDICATION MARCHES ON — A questionable programming vehicle for non-automated stations just a few short years ago, syndicated radio series have become a boom business in the late '70s. Led by companies such as Westwood One, DIR, Watermark, London Wavelength and Audio Stimulation, the syndication business has overcome programmer skepticism born out of experiences with irreputable fly-by-night syndicators when the field first opened up. Now some new series from reliable syndicators are lining up more than 100 stations out of the box.

One such example is "The Great American Radio Show" from Westwood One. A two-hour weekly countdown of 20 top-tracks mixed with new rock and jazz selections, the series debuted in early January on some 150 stations, including WXLO/New York (99X), KMET/Los Angeles and WKQX/Chicago. The bartered program is hosted by Goodphone Communications director Mike Harrison.

PROMOTION IN MOTION — KZEW-FM/Dallas and Infinity Records celebrated Robert Johnson's new LP, "Close Personal Friend," by letting listeners call a close personal friend free over the holidays. A special Zoophone was set up at a Peaches Records and Tapes store free to anyone who stopped by to call family or friends outside the state of Texas . . . Planet Records ran into a bit of a problem as a result of some customized versions of the Pointer Sisters' single "Fire" that appeared on RKO stations recently. It seems that the label is now swamped with requests from other stations for their own customized "Fire," which features call letters replacing the word "radio" in the song's first verse. Unfortunately the Sisters are getting set for a big European tour and can't get back into the studio to meet the demand. In fact, Planet sources now report the "Fire" demand is out of control.

K-WEST NEW YEAR -Century Broadcasting's KWST/Los Angeles (K-West) is going all out to make a dent in the fragmented L.A. rock market. A big New Year's Eve promotion including a Sunset Strip electronic countdown, a new film series and a nice profile in the L.A. Times are drawing a lot of attention to the "Lifestyle AOR" station.

STATION TO STATION — NBC-owned AOR WKQX/Chicago has made a subtle programming shift, switching its target audience to 25-34s. MD Bob King explains that the change is part of the fine tuning new NBC FM VP Walt Sabo is doing throughout the chain. Sabo has appointed Dick Penn, formerly of WWWE/Cleveland, as GM and more staff changes are anticipated at WKQX . . . WQAM/Miami tied in with the Spec's Records chain for the first South Florida Pop Music Poll Sweepstakes. The grand prize was 100 albums and $1,000 . . . WMMR/Philadelphia started the new year off with a Jan. 1 broadcast of Bob Dylan's "Live At Budokan" 2-LP import from his recent Japanese tour . . . WRKO/Boston is presenting "The Golden Years," a Drake-Chenault musical reflection of America from 1964-1978, this week . . . KWST/Los Angeles (K-West) is sponsoring a series of film retrospectives to be shown simultaneously in six theatres around Southern California. The first series for 1979 will be "Comedy Classics." Featured on four consecutive weekends will be Andy Warhol's "Frankenstein," "Kentucky Fried Movie," "Groove Tube" and a surprise special. A rare collection of Three Stooges shows will precede the features . . . Frankie Valli and the cast of "Grease" recently donated their time to help WPLJ/New York promote ABC's United Way drive. ABC vice president of radio programming Rick Sklar re-wrote the lyrics to Valli's "Grease," altering it to "Giving Is The Word," and the song was aired throughout ABC's corporate offices and studios . . . KREM-FM/Spokane is celebrating a recent power increase to 85,000 watts . . . A number of stations are planning specials to commemorate the anniversary of the tragic plane crash that took the lives of Buddy Holly, Richie Valens and The Big Bopper. The date was Feb. 3, 1959 . . . Following their upsets of the Miami Dolphins and the New England Patriots, "Houston Oilers Number One," the Oilers' fight song by Lee Ofnitz, is receiving heavy airplay in Houston. Cactus reports the 45 is currently #1 in sales there.

TM-BURKHART/ABRAMS PACT — Following the ratings success of WKTU-FM/New York, TM Programming has pacted to work with Burkhart/Abrams to create a taped disco format to be made available to automated stations and to do live consultation with disco stations. Pictured at the signing are (l-r): Jim Long, TM Programming president, Kent Burkhart and Ernie Winn, vice president/general manager of TM Programming.

NEW JOBS — Steven Clean has taken over the 10-2 a.m. slot at WCOZ/Boston. Clean returns to the city where he was a member of the original staff and served as PD at WBCN in 1968. In between, Clean did a five-year stint at KMET/Los Angeles and was most recently at WMMR/Philadelphia . . . Little Quits Mutual, Mgmt. Policy Cited

LOS ANGELES — C. Edward (Ed) Little has resigned his position as president of the Mutual Broadcasting System, as of Dec. 31, 1978. In his resignation announcement, Little said that the main reason for his departure was "Amway's (Mutual's owner) institution of a new management policy on Dec. 1, in which Mutual's would be 'management by committee.'"

No replacement is expected to be named for Little. His responsibilities will be divided between Mutual executive vice presidents Martin Rubenstein, who will direct programming, administration and sales, and Gary Worth, who will run technical operations and oversee owned stations under a planned acquisition program. Both are members of the new Mutual executive committee, headed by Amway vice president for policy/administration B.R. Schaafsma.

Little joined Mutual in 1972 when the network had 535 affiliates and was billing $3.5 million a year. At the time of his resignation, Mutual had more than 970 affiliates and was billing more than $21 million. Little cites the institution of the Mutual Black Network, expanded sports coverage and the beginning of Mutual's proposed satellite distribution system as his major accomplishments.

KODA-FM To Be Sold

HOUSTON — Westinghouse Broadcasting is reportedly set to purchase KODA-FM/Houston from a firm headed by Paul Taft. The price tag for the beautiful music station is around $7 million. KODA-FM will be Westinghouse's third FM station, but as the chain already owns its full complement of seven AM stations, daytimer KODA-AM is expected to be sold separately at an estimated price of $1.5 million.

KNX-FM Holds Steady

LOS ANGELES — KNX-FM/Los Angeles, which was inadvertently omitted from last week's L.A. ARB summary, held steady in the Oct./Nov. book. The CBS-owned soft-rocker scored a 3.1 average quarter hour figure, unchanged from the previous book.

Commissioners To Address NAB Meet

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Charles Ferris, chairman of the FCC, will address and take questions from broadcasters attending the 57th annual convention of the NAB. The convention and concurrent broadcast engineering conference will be held March 25-28 at the Dallas Convention Center. Ferris will speak at the closing general assembly.

The commissioners of baseball and the National Football League, Bowie Kuhn and Pete Rozelle, are also set to address the convention.

FCC Going To WARC

LOS ANGELES — In September, when representatives from 154 nations gather in Geneva for the World Administrative Radio Conference (WARC '79), the FCC plans to send a three-member oversight committee to support the official U.S. delegation. Chairman Charles Ferris and Commissioners Robert E. Lee and Tyrone Brown will be along to help in the creation of international regulations to govern all facets of communications for the next 20 years.

The conference will review virtually all of the International Telecommunication Union's radio regulations, and will set policy on a one-country, one-vote basis.

FCC Eliminates Testing

WASHINGTON, D.C. — In keeping with the current push for radio deregulation, the FCC has agreed to end the requirement for testing individuals who perform technical operations at radio stations. Effective Feb. 9, anyone holding any class of commercial radio license will be permitted to carry out routine technical operations.

Arbitron Testing Diaries

NEW YORK — During the Oct./Nov. survey, Arbitron conducted a four-market test to evaluate diaries designed to increase respondent accuracy and return rates and to obtain automobile listening information. The test sample, equal in size to that used for the standard local market report, will not be used in the production of published reports.

RCA-Nashville Establishes New Pop And Rock Label

by Ken Terry

NEW YORK — RCA Records-Nashville has formed a contemporary music label called Free Flight Records to spearhead its expansion into the pop music field. Headed by Jerry Bradley, division vice president of Nashville operations for RCA, the new label will, it is hoped, give a distinct identity to the pop and rock component of RCA-Nashville's operations.

Free Flight will maintain an exclusive artist roster, signing a maximum of eight to twelve acts which "exhibit strong commercial possibilities," according to a company release. While initial releases will be from artists new to the recording industry, negotiations are also under way with established acts. Among the label's first releases will be albums by Alex, Debbie Peters, Sharon Frederick and Mychael Jackson. Disco will definitely be part of the product mix, as shown by the signing of Peters.

Supporting the new roster of artists is an expanded promotion and marketing force reporting to Joe Galante, division vice president of marketing for RCA-Nashville. Regional promotion managers for Free Flight who have been added thus far include Pat Bullock (Dallas), Johnny Gray (Atlanta), John McNamara (Chicago), Louis Newman (Los Angeles) and Alan Resler (Cleveland). Personnel have also been added to the Nashville promotion staff and the advertising and artist development departments, which will provide dual support services to both Free Flight and RCA-Nashville.

Commitment To Nashville

RCA Records has shown an unusual commitment to its Nashville division. Last spring, Nashville was granted virtual autonomy within the company, and was given the right to sign pop acts and to hire its own promotion staff (Cash Box, May 27). At that time, a pop label under Nashville's wing was also mentioned as a possibility.

According to Bradley, the idea of forming a separate pop label had been considered since last January, but "we didn't want a label without a promotion staff." Once RCA-Nashville was given the green light to take on a pop promotion staff, Free Flight became a reality. "The whole key is that Free Flight has their own promotion people to start something," commented Bradley.

Noting that "there's an enormous wealth of (pop) talent in Nashville, and it's virtually untapped by a record company," Bradley stated that the formation of Free Flight sets a daring precedent in Nashville history. "I've been in the business for 18 or 19 years," he said, "and I've seen companies dabble in it (pop), but this is the first time I've seen a company put real money into it and say, 'Let's go do it.' "

Both Bradley and Galante emphasized

CMA's Quarterly Meet Scheduled For Puerto Rico

NASHVILLE — The Country Music Association will hold its first quarterly meeting for 1979 on Jan. 10 and 11 in Dorado Beach, Puerto Rico, to determine the organization's objectives and goals for the coming year.

CMA board chairman Tom Collins, who will preside over the meeting, said topics for discussion will include 1979 budgetary matters, the ratification of CMA's 30 committees, finalization of plans for the annual International Show and CMA's participation in events such as Fan Fair, the TV Awards Show, convention week, the Annual Talent Buyer's Seminar and Musexpo.

"We will also be discussing many other CMA projects, all designed to continue our aggressive world-wide promotion of country music," Collins said.

The January meeting will be called to order by CMA president Ralph Peer II, and will also feature in-depth reports and planning sessions by each of the following CMA committees and their respective chairmen: planning and development, Frances Preston; promotion, Don Nelson for Joe Smith; membership, Bill Lowery; long-

Parton And Burnett To Make Grand Ole Opry TV Special

by Jennifer Bohler

NASHVILLE — Dolly Parton and Carol Burnett will be filming a television special together at the world-famed Grand Ole Opry House Jan. 10. The tentative air date is Feb. 14.

Dolly and Carol began rehearsing for the special a few days after Christmas, and plan to do what Carol fondly refers to as a "two-and-a-half woman show." There will be no guests, just "Dolly and Carol in Nashville," as the special will be called. They are filming their first special in Nashville because, according to Carol, "it is the marvelously obvious place. This is Dolly's home turf."

The program will be taking on a live concert format, with two shows, one in the late afternoon and one at night. Both shows will include the same material and both will be performed before a live audience. The producers plan to pick the best performances from the two shows for broadcast.

Production Staff

Both ladies seem pleased with their production staff, which includes executive producer Joe Hamilton, producers Ken Welch, Mitzi Welch and Joe Layton, associate producer Bob Wright and director Roger Beatty. "Most of the people in this production crew have been together since the days of the Garry Moore show," Carol said, (she was a regular on the show for three years), "so we can usually tell what the other person is thinking just by looking at him. I think this should be a very organized production."

Although the special will be aired on Valentine's Day, there are no plans for it to take on a special Valentine flavor. Dolly said they are doing a medley in which each song contains the word heart, but that is about the extent of referring to the day.

NASHVILLE — Buzz Records in Nashville made its debut in the country field last month with the label's initial single titled "You Fit Me Like A Glove," which was written and recorded by Lee Morgan.

Morgan, who is the industry newcomer responsible for co-writing and co-producing the single "The King Is Gone," also shares production credits on this release for Buzz. The label has retained services of Nationwide Sound for the purposes of promotion and distribution, in addition to retaining the independent promotion services of Tom McBee.

Additional promotion materials will be co-ordinated through the firm's own headquarters at 50 Music Square West in Nashville, and will be mailed directly to all major country markets.

Morgan is the first in a series of artists to be launched on the label, which is a division of Brightside, Inc.

REVIEWS

THE KENDALLS (Ovation OV 1119)
I Had A Lovely Time (2:18) (Cross Keys Pub. — ASCAP) (Sonny Throckmorton/Don Cook)
To keep that string of chart topping singles, producer Brian Fisher and the Kendalls have come up with a Sonny Throckmorton/Don Cook song which sounds tailor made for their harmonizing. Similar to "It Don't Feel Like Sinning."
JOHNNY CASH (Columbia 3-10888)
I Will Rock And Roll With You (2:50) (House Of Cash — BMI) (J.R. Cash)
This single sounds as if it were directly from the late fifties and the Memphis Sun Studios with Jack Clements at the controls and Sam Phillips producing. Stations who have not programmed Cash since "A Boy Named Sue" will surely add this cut.
DAVE & SUGAR (RCA PB 11427)
Golden Tears (2:28) (Chess Music — ASCAP) (John Schweers)
A catchy chorus tells of a youth changing to an adult and in a prosperous fashion. Good rhythm, but the story is very similar to "Satin Sheets."
TOM T. HALL (RCA PB 11453)
Son Of Clayton Delaney (2:52) (Hallnote Pub. — BMI) (Tom. T. Hall)
The Storyteller not only adds an off-spring to Clayton Delaney, but picks up the tempo a bit. Still the type of lyrics that keep the listener interested.
CON HUNLEY (Warner Brothers WBS 8723)
I've Been Waiting For You All My Life (2:50) (Al Gallico Music Corp. — BMI) (Mark Sherrill/Linda Kimball)
Another terrific job done by singer, Con Hunley, producer, Norro Wilson, and string arranger, Bergen White. Con's soulful country vocal should ring request lines at radio.

Felts' 45 Makes Top Chart Jump

NASHVILLE — Narvel Felts' current single, "Everlasting Love," on ABC Records took the biggest jump ever on the Cash Box country chart. With 48 percent of the Cash Box tracking stations reporting it as a new add this week, the single went from #70 bullet to #25 bullet spot on this week's chart.

The single debuted on the chart two weeks ago at the #70 bullet spot where it remained when the charts were frozen during the holidays. It gathered enough support during the one-week period to give it a 48 percent share of the tracking stations reporting.

Album Coming

Narvel's new album entitled, "One Run For The Roses," is scheduled for a mid-January release and will feature the single, "Everlasting Love."

The 45 point jump came only a couple of weeks after the Eddie Rabbitt single "Every Which Way But Loose," from the soundtrack to the motion picture of the same name, came in at#71 bullet and took a 42-point jump to the #29 bullet position.

DISCO BREAKS

DISCO IN THE FORBIDDEN CITY — The momentous developments in Sino-American affairs in recent days had an interesting disco sidenote. During a New Year's Eve party hosted by Chinese Vice Premiere Teng Hsiao-ping in Peking, the invited American and Chinese dignitaries loosened their ties and Mao collars and danced to the familiar strains of "Stayin' Alive" by the Bee Gees. The next step for the Bee Gees comes Jan. 12 when they will be honored with a star on Hollywood Blvd.

NAMES IN THE NEWS — Judy Weinstein and the For The Record Pool in NYC will host a northeast regional pool directors meeting on Jan. 22 at an as-yet-undetermined location in New York. Thirteen pool directors from the region will be invited to the closed meeting. Main topics will include discussion of the Miami meeting, its consequences and preparation for the anticipated meeting at the Forum in late Feburary . . .

DJ Marty Ross

Arnie Smith has been named national director of disco promotion for RSO. Smith reports that disco will receive "total commitment" from RSO. Smith was previously with Casablanca as a disco promotion director and also with Provocative Promotions in L.A. . . .Marty Ross who spins on Friday and Saturday nights at Menjo's in Detroit is in this week's DJ spotlight. Ross has been with the club since its inception four years ago. In addition to spinning, Ross holds down a day job as a plastics chemist.

DISCO RADIO — KCBS-FM in San Francisco incorporated an 8 p.m.-2 a.m. disco shift into its format last Thursday. With its revised Adult Contemporary/Disco format, 97K has launched an aggressive, $500,000 one-year promotion campaign to introduce the station to the Bay Area and beyond. According to Tom Pierce, vice president and general manager of the CBS owned and operated outfit, the station boosted its power from 4,200 watts to a whopping 82,000 watts last September with little publicity. The campaign which was recently kicked off, features billboard, print and TV buys. The theme is "97K Monster FM." While the station will continue day-parting AC music, it hopes to become San Francisco's (and Oakland and San Jose's) night-time dance station. "Our aim is to match programming to our audiences moods," says Pierce. "We are aiming at the 25-34 age group as our primary audience and we see disco and up-tempo music as a real turn-on for the evenings." Reportedly, John Hedges, formerly of BADDA, is acting as a disco consultant to Steve (Newman) Walker who is music director. Bill Keffury is PD . . . Jim Long, president of TM Programming, has signed an agreement with Kent Burkhart of Burkhart/Abrams Assoc. that will make the B/A-created disco format available on tape for automated stations or on a live consultation basis. Burkhart and Wanda Ramos will work with TM Programming to create the taped version which will be available for syndication by late March . . . Wolfman Jack has a new three-hour disco show being promoted by Audio Stimulation in Hollywood. This show has already received preliminary commitments and ought to be on the air in early February. Paul Ward, former

ULTIMATE — Ultimate — South Philly Prod./Casablanca NB 7128 — LP — List: 7.98

Producers Juliano Salerni and Bruce Weeden worked with Boris Midney on the USA/European Connection affair. This is their first outing with Casablanca and the label's first release of the year. Side A is a 14:30 medley with musical direction provided by an aggressive string chart, funky keyboard underpinnings, steady high-hat work and silky layered female vocals. Horns add spark. Firmly in the beautiful music realm, the medley is a nice build for an evening's activities. Side B opens with "Ritmo de Brazil" which is an overlaying of percussion embellishments and melodic silky keyboard lines. "Music In My Heart" at 6:38 is an outspoken weave of horns, strings and dropped-back rhythm section. The exchange between the vocals and the strings is vibrant.

Flood Of Superstar Albums Sets The Tone For First Quarter 1979

valleys no longer exist in the record business. The summer has become a great sales period, and so has the first part of the year. But you can't lump all your product into a given period of time and expect to maximize your potential with it. You always get a heavy influx of superstars in the final quarter, but in the past few years we've issued superstars throughout the year."

At Warner Bros., where new albums by George Benson, George Harrison, Gary Wright and Frank Zappa will ship later this month, Lou Dennis, vice president and director of sales for the label, said that "releases are never determined based on the calendar year." Noting that the Harrison and Benson LPs (the latter is a two-pocket album priced at $14.98) were scheduled for release in time for the holiday season, Dennis said, "When you're dealing with the creative process, you can make all the plans you want, but if the product isn't ready, there's nothing you can do. Who's going to tell Rembrandt to paint something 4x8 if he wants to make it 9x10?"

In addition to its John Denver and Jefferson Starship releases, RCA will concentrate during its first quarter on three of its developing artists. "The advantage of a balanced schedule is that we have even sales all year round," noted Dick Carter, division vice president of field marketing for the label, where new LPs from Bonnie Tyler, Evelyn "Champagne" King, and Toby Beau are expected soon. Carter added that some releases were delayed from the holiday season so that RCA could "spring them at the right time."

New and developing artists will also comprise the bulk of releases set by Arista, Polydor and Atlantic. Arista will issue five debut LPs in the next three months, plus second albums from Jennifer Warnes, Michael Henderson, and Raydio. The soundtrack to "Ice Castles," featuring Melissa Manchester and the Alan Parsons Project is also anticipated.

At Polydor, the company hopes to carry the momentum of its "Steppin' To Our Disco" campaign into January, when Spring issues a new Fatback LP. Debut albums are also due from Alton McLain and Destiny, the Farragher Bros., and Billy Burnette. A new Atlanta Rhythm Section album is expected by March.

"There was a tendency at one time for the majors to go with their superstars in the fall so that they could take advantage of the maximum impact at retail," observed Harry Anger, senior vice president of marketing for Polydor. "But the tremendous growth of the industry now gives us the time to develop new artists and sell our product year-round."

Atlantic has yet to finalize its first quarter schedule, but Dave Glew, senior vice president and general manager of the label, said that Atlantic hopes to release new LPs by Abba, the Trammps, England Dan & John Ford Coley, the Guess Who, Bad Company, and the Average White Band. A January release date has already been set for Herbie Mann's new album.

Very Little Control

"There's very little control we have with major acts over release dates," Glew said. "So what we shoot for is a major artist in each release. It gives us a chance to bring out some of our newer artists in the meantime." That list includes second albums from Jimmy Mack, Sister Sledge, and Michael Walden.

Other releases anticipated in the first quarter include new LPs by The Eagles, Judy Collins, Steve Goodman, Con Funk Shun, Rick James, Diana Ross, Al Green, Peter Brown, Betty Wright, Bob Welch, Bob Seger, and a reunion album by three former members of the Byrds, Roger McGuinn, Gene Clark, and Chris Hillman.

RCA Sets Pop Label

that, though there is plenty of talent in their city, they will not limit themselves to signing local talent. (In fact, Galante pointed out, Alex is a Norwegian artist.) Underlining that point, Free Flight's A&R manager, Tony Brown, who reports to Bradley, is based on the West Coast.

At the same time, Galante noted, Nashville does provide fertile soil for a new pop label. "We're embarking on this exceptional venture for two reasons," he said. "First, in Nashville we have a solid musical community from which to draw support for a contemporary music label, and, with the rapport our operation has developed with pop, adult contemporary and AOR stations, the musical timing is right."

NEW PRESIDENT FOR NAACP WEST — Attorney Geraldine Greene has been elected president of the Beverly Hills/Hollywood branch of the NAACP for a two year term which started Jan. 1, 1979.

NAB INVESTMENT FUND INCORPORATES — The National Association of Broadcasters Minority Broadcast Investment Fund, has been officially incorporated. The firm, which intends to raise over $45 million in cash and loan guarantees, has started sending out letters soliciting donations from the major networks and 29 top group broadcast owners. The NAB minority task force, which filed for charitable tax exempt status with the Internal Revenue Service, hopes to have $32.5 million in cash for direct equity and long term investments. The amount, the task force expects, could generate $309.75 million in loan transactions for up to 124 broadcast stations. The task force is now in the process of finding trustees to oversee the fund.

Other efforts made to increase minority ownership by two broadcast firms were, Storer Broadcasting received a ruling from the FCC freeing it to establish a minority ownership fund. It plans to set up a small business investment corporation to which it will donate $1 million, to be matched by another $4 million by the SBA.

Allbritton Communications has set a consultancy program to advise and help minority groups in purchasing stations. The organization has reportedly assisted one firm, Unity Broadcasting in acquiring WDAS in Philadelphia.

Jose Feliciano offered his talents on a couple of cuts on the album, contributing some backing vocals and guitar licks.

TEDDY IN TAHOE — Teddy Pendergrass will make his debut appearance at The Sahara Tahoe, Feb. 2-4.

BONEY M. GO TO MOSCOW — Boney M., the German based West Indian pop group, made its debut appearance in Moscow recently with overwhelming success. Black, president of the organization says, "We will make this meeting as low cost as possible, so that everybody can attend. Cost has always been the main problem keeping many programmers especially in the South from being able to get together and share ideas." The convention will be held over a three-day period in Memphis and will feature Ben Hooks, president of the NAACP as a keynote speaker, with panels of some influential black program directors.

LATIN PICKS

Y AHORA ALGO SOLIDO — Louie Colon — El Sonido ES-R2083 — Producer: Chico Alvarez

Veteran bandleader Louie Colon debuts with this swinging album on the El Sonido Label. The most interesting thing about this album is the vocalist, Ricky Soto, who is only 17 years old and has the potential to make it to the top. On this remarkable album most of the cuts are moving salsa numbers except for two boleros and one merengue. The best songs are Me La Pagaras, Arizepentimiento, Amor De Cigarrillo, Madame Sufra, En El Silencio De La Noche and Quiero Volver A Mi Tierra.

DOCE VENENO — Maria Creuza — RCA-103-0251 — No Producer

Multi-talented sexy songstress Maria Creuza excels in this beautiful album of love songs done in Portuguese with Brazilian rhythms. Her voice is intact througnout the album. The orchestrations for strings are superb. Special credit to the lead guitar player for his backing of Maria in most of the ballads in the album. The best selections are: Algemas, Trocando En Miudos, Quase, Mal Me Quer, Saudade Vadia, Folha Morta, Tudo Se Transformou, Caminhemos, and Doce Veneno. Without any doubt this album should be a winner in Brazil.

LATIN BEAT

At long last a book on the history of Latin music by John Storm Roberts. In recognition of the many musical masters who have inspired today's great musicians and today's salsa sounds, Fania's president Jerry Masucci announced a donation of a grant from Fania Records to author Roberts. The book, which is tentatively entitled, "The Latin Thing: The Impact of Latin American Music in the U.S.," is due for publication in the fall of 1979. It will trace Latin music from the Tango craze, through the Bossa-Nova, into Cuban music areas and include the growth of New York salsa and Latin jazz. This book will place Latin music in its proper perspective . . . right alongside comparative jazz, rock and folk anthologies. As John Storm Roberts appropriately stated: "Latin music is the most important outside influence on American music over the last century without exception." Bravo!

Runaways is not a salsa musical, but it's sure got salsa! Nominated for five Tony Awards, including Best Musical, the play represents a major breakthrough for Latins because it reflects the Latin experience, and stars five Latins in the cast. Originally staged at the Public Theatre in a cabaret setting, the musical moved to the Plymouth Theatre, adding brass to the orchestra and extra dancers to fill that big Broadway stage.

The Chateau Madrid recently celebrated its 40th year as one of New York's top night clubs. A performance by famous conguero Candido was the highlight of the anniversary celebration which featured Latinissima, a talented group of singers and dancers. An added attraction was the performance of the world-famous dance team of Augie and Margo. Chateau continuously offers a floor show accompanied by fine Spanish food.

In an attempt to reach more people on a broader level, T.R. Records has signed a contract with WBNX (Radio X). Every Monday, from one to three in the afternoon, Polito Vega will host a show exclusively comprised of music from T.R. recording artists. The contract runs for one year with an option for continued air time.

Landy Soba (promoter/booking agent), whose philosophy is "letting everybody make a buck," is at it again. With the rising costs of buying music, Landy is cooperating with the clubs and supplying more top name bands — apparently at a more reasonable rate than his competition. Because of the amount of work Landy is securing, he is attracting a lot of inquiries from bands that want to sign with his office, Jose Curbelo's Management. Landy, at this time, did not want to divulge the names, but we understand a few are biggies.

Rafael Solano, one of the Dominican Republic's top recording artists, has finished his first album for T.R. Records. The title of the album is "Aqui Lo Tienen." A single being released from the album is titled "El Burro Quere Aqua."

Rhio Corelll has a new single coming out on the Del Mundo label, distributed by T.R. The "A" side is titled "Es Angustia." The "B" side is "Me Alejo De Ti."

The Congreso de la Federacion Latinoamericana de Productores de Discos (FLAPF) will be celebrated at the Hotel Sheraton in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, during the month of September, 1979 . . . Licenciado Renato Lopez has been appointed director of the international department for RCA Mexico. Jorge Ortis Pino has been appointed manager, international product development at RCA, based in New York. The appointment of Jorge to this position was announced by Kelll G. Ross, vice president, international division, creative affairs, to whom Pino will be reporting. Jorge is the son of the president of RCA Brazil and Argentina, Adolfo Pino. From this new powerful position the young executive will be able to speed up and cooperate actively with the artists and Latin American productions, given to RCA for its development.

Joe Cayre, president of the Salsoul Record Corporation, has announced the immediate release of Charo's second album, "Ole, Ole," to be distributed by RCA Records.

TR Records has just released a new single from Ralphi Santi's new album, which is titled "Salsa On Ice." The single is "La Primavera" b/w "La Comivante." Both sides are getting heavy airplay in New York, Puerto Rico and in New England . . . Daniel Magal recorded various television programs (Siempre en Domingo) before returning to Argentina. Daniel Magal will stay in Argentina a couple of days and then fly to Spain where he will be performing for the popular television program "300 Millones" and "Lazaro." The song for which Magal is receiving the most promotion since his international smash hit, "Cara de Gitana," is "Dondo Andaras" . . . The success of Rocio Jurado (RCA) with "Lo Siento Mi Amor," by Manuel Alejandro and Ana Magdalena, is beginning to be felt strongly. It's a great song and an excellent interpretation by the Spanish singer, who sings with all she has, and that's plenty . . . Hurricane Records released on the west coast the single "Que Bonita Navidad" and "Ride, Santa, Ride" interpreted by Al Hurricane. Al and his brother Tiny Morrie are associated with Bennie L. Sanchez, their mother, in Hurricane Enterprises, and in addition to the recording label, they are owners of the very popular Chicano night club, "Far West" in the New Mexico area.

Kunze Establishes Label In Munich

MUNICH — Songwriter/producer Michael Kunz has formed his own label in Germany titled Karma. The record company's offices will be located in Munich and is co-owned by Kunz and Helmar Kunte. Karma has signed a distribution pact with Deutsche Grammophon Gesellschaft in Hamburg.

At the label, Kunze will be responsible for handling most of the A&R and production duties, while Kunte will be taking care of marketing and promotion coordination. Kunze's and Kunte's aims are to produce records that exhibit international appeal and to conduct each artist's creative direction, from the point of choosing song material on through to helping perfect their artist's live presentation. Also, the duo intends to apply its innovative marketing and promotion techniques.

The artists signed to Karma include: Rhonda Heath, a member of the group Silver Convention (whose singles "Fly, Robin, Fly" and "Get Up And Boogie" were written and produced by Kunze); and rock group Munich, which features lead singer Peter Bischoff.

BUENOS AIRES — The Raffaella Carra video-tape reruns have been the smash of December among TV viewers. CBS had arranged with Channel 11 to air the compilation of existing programs taped in Italy and Spain by the chantress, and they have been shown on Sundays at 10 p.m., a wonderful slot during the summer. According to some experts, the label had reached a sale of nearly 100,000 LPs of the existing Carra recordings as a consequence of her recent visit to Argentina. The company is also leading the booming blank cassette field, which accounts for more than 300,000 units a month and has been growing steadily during the past three years, in spite of the crisis affecting the record industry.

Phonogram is working on the promotion of the new LP by Luis Landriscina, quite a popular artist these days. Landriscina started five years ago as a humorous story teller, and is now immensely popular, with albums selling over the 100,000 mark. The new LP is tagged "Tales For Christmas," but is expected to sell during the whole summer.

JAZZ ALBUM PICKS

JUST FRIENDS — LA 4 — Concord CJD-1001 — Producer: Carl Jefferson — List: 15.98

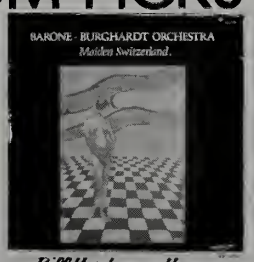
Concord goes the direct-to-disc route for the first time with an established group playing a variety of high quality tunes, each with its own identity. It should be noted that Bud Shank has rarely played better, and that Ray Brown, Laurindo Almeida and Jeff Hamilton make a superb group.

SO MANY ROADS — Otis Rush — Delmark 643 — Producer: Steve Tomashefsky — List: 7.98

"So Many Roads" is a live album recorded in Japan, in July of 1975 with Rush contributing gut-wrenching guitar and vocals, backed by his own rhythm section. The titles here show the often reluctant Rush at his bluesy best. The music is blues at its best, and fans of Rush should be overjoyed with this album.

NEW MOON IN ZYTRON — Zytron — Pacific Arts PAC 7-120 — Producer: Zytron — List: 7.98

The experimental jazz sounds produced by Zytron are primarily the creation of percussionist/vocalist James Zitro and saxophonist David Liebman, who make up the core of the group. Side one contains most of the avant-garde material, offering textures and moods more than melodies or choruses. Side two should receive most of the airplay for its Zitro/Liebman be-bop duet ("The Call"), the graceful "Waltz for Do Do" and Zytron's treatment of John Coltrane's "Equinox."



MAIDEN SWITZERLAND — Barone-Burghardt Orchestra — Discovery DS-790 — Producers: Mike Barone & Victor Burghardt — List: 7.98

Spearheaded by trombonist Mike Barone and alto saxophonist Victor Burghardt, the Barone-Burghardt Orchestra is a newly formed big band which has delivered a zesty assortment of self-penned compositions on this album. "Maiden Switzerland" exhibits a bright, powerful execution by its two dozen instrumentalists, as witnessed by such worthy numbers as "Note Resistant," "Bumper Thumper" and the title track.

HOME — Bill Hardman — Muse 5152 — Producer: Houston Person — List: 7.98

This is a stirring hard-bop LP featuring trumpet man Hardman with Junior Cook, Slide Hampton and a solid rhythm team. Most of the writing is by Mickey Tucker, who also contributes tasty piano. This is the first full-length glimpse of Hardman on LP, and the results provide for stimulating listening.

ALIVE AT THE PILGRIMMAGE — Fejj — Jet Danger J5302 — Producer: J. Donley — List: 7.98

Recorded last June at the John Anson Ford Theater (formerly the Pilgrimmage) in Los Angeles, this album spotlights the sturdy, lively ensemble playing of Fejj, a nine-piece jazz outfit. Containing mostly original material, "Alive At The Pilgrimmage" is highlighted by the interesting keyboard textures of Jim Cox and the invigorating guitar solos of Steve Bartek.

Williams' 'Pompeii' Shuffle Alley Game Features High-Scoring 'Advance'

CHICAGO — An innovative "advance" game choice is among the highlights of the new United "Pompeii" six-player shuffle alley, which is currently in full production at Williams Electronics, Inc. This special feature allows players to reach exceptionally high scoring levels via progressive scoring on strikes and spares plus extra frames for strikes. In the extra frames, "advance" also includes the "flashing light" feature popularized in the "flash" game.

Additionally, Pompeii is equipped with Williams' noted electronic sounds system which reproduces trumpet sounds at the start and conclusion of play; sirens for super scoring hits; the familiar "raspberry" when a player misses and various other related sound effects like falling pins, strikes, spares, et al.

Besides "advance" and "800" (which was recently introduced on the "Aristocrat" shuffle) the remaining game choices are "regulation," "flash" and "strike 90."

"Pompeii's blend of unique sounds and exciting game selections will spark player interest and competitiveness," commented Williams' marketing manager Ron Crouse, "which will, in turn, increase profits on location."

Other features of the new model include individual player memory, "high score to date" on regulation play, and interchangeability of solid state boards with all of Williams' solid state pingame components.

The machine is currently available through Williams' network of distributors.

Featured At AMOA

Pompeii, along with the soon-to-be-released "Flash" flipper, the new "Pokerino" and "Phoenix" and the highly successful "Contact" and "Disco Fever" made up the outstanding array of equipment displayed by Williams at the November AMOA convention. The factory's participation in the '78 show was unprecedented. An elaborate, new island type exhibit, complete with flashing strobe lights and colorful decor, housed the product lineup, and added attractions included a special "talking" pinball machine plus such giveaway items as T-shirts and decals.

"The exhibit was packed with people from the moment we opened at noon on Friday (11/10) until closing at 4 p.m. Sunday (11/12)," stated Williams' president Michael Stroll. "In fact, people were still lined up playing the games when we had to shut down." Based on the reaction at the show, he said, "we know Williams will maintain its present position in the industry as 'The Hot One'."

'Flash' Game

The factory's upcoming "Flash" pinball machine is scheduled for production in spring of this year. Its designer Steve Ritchie described the new model as "unlike any flipper now being produced." It was received by many at AMOA as the "hit of the show," he added, making special note of its "unparalleled play excitement" and outstanding audio and visual characteristics.

Williams' wide-body "Pokerino," another of the show's attractions, is currently in production at the factory. Designed by Steve Kordek, this machine incorporates many of the outstanding features of the previous model in this category, namely, "Contact," the factory's first wide-body game; plus some additional player attractions, as Kordek pointed out.

Also premiered at AMOA was the factory's "Phoenix" flipper, designed by Barry Oursler and noted for its exceptional artwork which is "different from anything we've done in the past," Oursler said, as well as the Blazeway ramp and numerous play features.

The year 1978 marked a period of innovation and achievement for Williams, climaxed by an exceptional showing at the AMOA convention. The company is planning for an equally momentous 1979.

Rock-Ola Sponsors Training Program For 93 Distributor Service Personnel

CHICAGO — A total of 93 servicemen, representing Rock-Ola distributors, recently completed special training courses sponsored by the factory and held in three different areas of the country. Service managers from all of Rock-Ola's domestic distributors plus one from England participated in the program.

The courses were held in Monterey, Calif., Chicago, Ill. and Atlanta, Ga. for the purpose of familiarizing servicemen with the new computerized features of Rock-Ola's recently introduced "Mystic" phonograph.

"In order to bring operators the many new income-stimulating features of the new Mystic phonograph, we incorporated the very latest in micro-processor and mini-computer technology," explained Edward G. Doris, Rock-Ola's executive vice president.

"Although most servicemen are familiar with the general concept of these techniques, the degree of sophistication required to provide the many features of the new 160-selection phonograph made the special training necessary," he continued.

"In one year Rock-Ola phonographs changed from machines that simply play records to ones that actively promote play and strongly stimulate plus profits for the operator. The many ways these things can be accomplished under varying location conditions require special education for the serviceman," Doris said.

The three two-day courses were conducted by Ralph Petri, chief electronic engineer; Mike Schneider, microprocessor engineer; William D. Findlay, service manager and Frank Schulz, technical service supervisor.

Bally, Playboy Set Promo Campaign For New Flipper

CHICAGO — The current Bally "Playboy" flipper has been the subject of a massive joint promotional campaign by Bally Manufacturing Corp. and Playboy Enterprises. The machine was introduced amidst much fanfare at the November AMOA convention in Chicago, where two Playmates and two bunnies were on hand at the Bally booth, courtesy of Playboy, to autograph backglass posters for convention visitors. This promotion was repeated, with equal success, at the IAAPA convention in Atlanta and is subsequently scheduled for the ATE London convention and Forainexpo in Paris.

Playboy's part in the venture continued with an editorial spread, featuring the machine, in the December issue of the magazine and the awarding of four Playboy flippers as prizes in their "Good Life Sweepstakes" which, in addition to the magazine's coverage, involved a more than 1.5 million mailing.

On the local level, Bally and Playboy have a 10-day contest promotion running on radio station WCFL-Chicago and the grand prize being offered is a Bally Playboy machine. Similar contests are planned for 10 other major markets.

Midway Schedules European Schools

CHICAGO — In conjunction with the ATE convention, Midway Manufacturing Co.'s service manager Andy Ducay will conduct a series of service schools in Europe. The initial session will be held on Jan. 29 at Ruffler & Deith Ltd. in London and it will deal comprehensively with Midway's entire product line. Dave Adams of Bally Continental is assisting Ducay in coordinating the program and the subject matter will cover all phases of service from grounding, static and line noise to self-testing procedures and schematic reading. Everyone attending will receive an instruction manual and a handy tool, courtesy of Midway.

There will also be a class held on Jan. 30 at Bally Continental in London, following which Ducay will head for Antwerp to conduct a two-day session at the Eurocrest Hotel.

A series of five schools are scheduled for Hanover during the period of Feb. 5-9 and, here again, Rotation VIII will be a prime topic along with other Midway machines and a special Feb. 7 session on test equipment. Gunter Schneider of Wulff Automaten assisted Ducay in arranging the Hanover program.

Godwin Appointed Stern Distributor

CHICAGO — Stern Electronics, Inc., announced the appointment of Godwin Distributing Co. as distributor of the Stern product line in the state of Arkansas. The Godwin facilities are located at 2024 W. 38th St. in North Little Rock, Arkansas.

Stern's latest release is the solid state "Nugent" four-player pinball machine, which is in full production at the Chicago-based factory. In addition, the firm is sample shipping its forthcoming "Dracula" machine to foreign and domestic distributors.

Prototypes of the new "Genesis" shuffle alley are scheduled for release in early January, according to Stern officals.

Atari Appoints Kassar Pres., Keenan Chairman

LOS ANGELES — Raymond E. Kassar has been appointed president and chief executive officer of Atari, a subsidiary of Warner Communications Inc. In addition, Joseph F. Keenan has been named board chairman of the electronic game firm.

Kassar has previously served as senior consultant and general manager of the consumer products division at Atari, while Keenan was formerly president of the company.

CHICAGO CHATTER

Here's to 1979 — a year, we hope, will be a great one for all of you.

STERN ELECTRONICS, INC. wrapped up a very good '78 and has ambitious plans for the New Year, as we learned from marketing director Steve Kaufman. There'll be considerable internal expansion with some additions to the present staff and increased concentration on quality control; plus a greater emphasis on public relations and, in this regard, Stern recently retained the public relations firm of Margie Korshak & Associates. Among new staff members already hard at work is Larry Siegel, who joined Stern late last year and is handling administration and sales. Siegel has quite a bit of experience in both the operating and manufacturing levels of the coin machine industry, having operated a route in the San Francisco Bay Area and served with such companies as Williams, and Segasa of Spain. The factory is currently delivering its highly touted "Nugent" pin and will follow it up with a model called "Dracula" — and this one has got some sensational artwork, we understand.

LOCAL COIN PEOPLE are mourning the death of Bally's Mort Secore, who passed away on Dec. 27. He had been a member of the coin machine industry for a good many years, most of them spent in the Chicago area but he was equally well known and highly regarded by trade people with whom he had done business across the country. Prior to his tenure at Bally, he served with the defunct Chicago Dynamic Industries. Secore was terminally ill and hospitalized at the time of his death. Cash Box expresses sympathy to his widow, Shirlee and son, Bill. Messages of condolence may be sent to the family at 4039 Church St., Skokie, Ill. 60076.

MIDWAY MFG. CO.'s director of marketing Stan Jarocki is gearing up for the big ATE convention, Jan. 23-25 at Alexandra Palace in London. He'll be among the big contingent of Chicagoans in attendance and, from what he tells us, Midway's participation this year will be full-scale. A lineup of about seven pieces, including "Space Invaders," "Submarine," "Blue Shark," "Shuffleboard," "Rotation VIII" and various "surprise" games (for spring delivery) will be displayed in the spacious Bally Continental exhibit . . . Bally's marketing director Ross Scheer said that quite a bit of Bally product would be shown at ATE, including the factory's new slot line.

EASTERN FLASHES

In late December, Universe Affiliated Int'l. purchased a large, new building which will serve as central headquarters for the growing company. The new site, located at 314 W. First Ave. in Reselle, N.J., contains 20,000 sq. ft. of space to house expanded showrooms, board repair facilities and the firm's parts departments. Universe will also retain its original building in Hillside, N.J. and maintain offices there, as well. Nice way to start out the New Year.

THE FOLKS AT Rowe-Albany enjoyed a white Christmas — a white New Year — and at press time last week there was still plenty of the white stuff left over from the recent 14" snowfall out there. Business, however, has been holding steady, with the big emphasis on music sales and the new Rowe "Disco 200" phonograph. The new model is quite in demand, as Bob Catlin told us, to the extent that he "just can't get 'em in fast enough." His prognosis for 1979 — "if it's as good as '78, I'll be very pleased." Bob said Atari's "Football" is among his best selling games right now. There'll be some schools coming up, he added, but weather being a deterring factor, no definite schedule is anticipated until about March or April.

SORRY TO LEARN THAT Bob Griffith, vice president of Cleveland Coin, underwent major surgery just before the holidays. As the man who makes things hum at Cleveland Coin, Bob is very well known in the industry and Cash Box joins his many friends and associates in wishing him a speedy recovery. He is currently convalescing at home so you can send get well wishes to him at 73 Merriman Road, Akron, Ohio 44303.

20th, Roadshow Dist. Deals Revealed At RCA Meeting

delays, the King LP had to be pulled from the January release, but the new Starship greatest hits package, entitled "Gold," will be out this month as scheduled.

Maximize Sales

Michael Abramson, director of special merchandising projects for RCA, told the field personnel not to expect much radio action on "Gold," since it includes only previously issued material. Instead of focusing on airplay, Abramson said, the Starship campaign will concentrate on in-store merchandising and advertising. A key to this approach will be the specially-designed, gold-embossed gatefold album cover. And, to maximize Starship sales, small reproductions of the covers of the group's catalog are displayed inside the gatefold.

The John Denver campaign will revolve around TV exposure, according to Jack Maher, director of east coast merchandising for RCA. The new LP, which shipped gold, will be supported by a series of network and local TV buys for the week of January 22. In addition, radio and print ad blitzes will precede Denver's upcoming television special. Denver will also host the Grammy Awards show February 15.

Country Campaign

The country campaign that RCA launched last spring will be moved up a couple of months this year in response to requests from branch personnel. Bearing the slogan, "RCA Country — The Winning Team," the promotion will extend from March 1 to April 16 and will encompass extended dating and discounts for dealers.

Several major releases are being readied by RCA Red Seal, including new albums by Tomita, Eugene Podor and James Galway. According to Thomas Z. Shepard, division vice president of Red Seal A&R, the label is launching an all-out effort to transform Galway, a flutist, into a classical superstar. His recently shipped LP, "Annie's Song," will be specially priced and discounted to dealers, and RCA will support Galway's first major U.S. tour by advertising his catalog.

Warren Schatz, division vice president of popular A&R, spoke about the changes that have occurred in RCA's artist roster over the past year. In 1978, he said, the A&R department cut the number of acts signed to RCA from 82 to 32, and started building up from there. He admitted that some mistakes had been made in new signings, and that these were being rectified. After stripping down the roster even further in 1979, he said, he foresaw "clear sailing" in the A&R area.

RCA's brightest hopes among its developing artists, Schatz continued, are such acts as Richard T. Bear, Triumph and Fandango. He also expressed the hope that Evelyn King's album would be the first RCA record by a black artist to be certified platinum.

Schatz complimented Neil Portnow, division vice president of west coast A&R, on his establishment of a powerful A&R presence for RCA on the west coast. Among the acts which Portnow has brought to the label are Evie Sands, Max Demian and Grey & Hanks; he was also instrumental in arranging RCA's distribution pact with Rocket Records.

Sales And Promotion Meetings

In addition to hearing the new product they will be selling, branch representatives at the regional meetings had an opportunity to meet with one another and with the national label executives who run the company. There was also a conscious effort by the management to improve communication between promotion and sales personnel, highlighted by a series of promotion and sales seminars.

Speakers at the sales seminars were: Frank O'Donnell, manager of national sales operations, on creative merchandising; Tony Montgomery, director of national singles sales, on seven-inch and 12-inch singles sales; Dave Wheeler, director of national country sales, on country selling; Irwin Katz, director of Red Seal merchandising, on classical sales; and Larry Gallagher, director of national accounts and field merchandising, on rack and new account opportunities.

Speakers at the promotion seminars were: Joe Galante on country promotion; Joshua Blardo, director of national album promotion, on AOR; Margo Knesz, director of national singles promotion, on Top 40; Bill Staton, director of national black music promotion, on black music; and Chuck Thagard, director of national field promotion, who talked about the overall RCA promotion effort.

Doobies LP Goes Gold

LOS ANGELES — "Minute By Minute," the latest album by The Doobie Brothers on Warner Bros. Records, has been certified gold by the RIAA.

Inphasion Signs Love

LOS ANGELES — Disco artist Mary Love has signed to the newly formed Inphasion Records label and will release "Turn Me, Turn Me, (All Around)" as her first single.

derstanding," an explosive song with the kind of power Bruce Springsteen is known for, and one which shifts his emphasis from socio-political themes to more personal, yet universal, concerns. On the business side, Columbia will be including an EP with the first 20,000 copies of "Armed Forces" which contains several songs recorded live last summer at Costello's Hollywood High concert. Elvis will be back on the road for a three-and-a-half-month U.S. tour beginning Feb. 6 . . . Elektra/Asylum's Steve Goodman sings a duet with Nicolette Larson on his new album and the song, "The One That Got Away," should be out as a single before the end of the month.

SHORT TAKES — Ron Douglas apparently is leaving his post at CBS to join MCA Distributing Corp. . . . Eddie Rabbitt will write the title tune for a new 20th Century-Fox film "Breaking The Way" with composer Bill "Rocky" Conti . . . While vacationing in Aspen, Colo., Jimmy Buffett re-broke the same leg in the same spot that he did last year in a softball game. Joining Buffett in the Aspen snow over the holidays were the Eagles, who hosted a New Year's Eve party attended by, among others, Marlo Thomas, Phil Donahue, some of the Kennedys, Diane von Furstenburg, Richard Perry, Michael Brandon and Stevie Nicks . . . Look for some top level executive changes at Bearsville Records . . . Australia's Billy Thorpe has completed his first album for a U.S. label and it should be out in March. The Spencer Proffer-produced LP will most likely go to a southern-based record company . . . Frankie Valli will debut his new single, "Fancy Dancer," on national television in an appearance on the sixth annual American Music Awards. The show is to be aired Friday, Jan. 12 on ABC-TV . . . Finally, congratulations to Stan Montelro, our former director of marketing, who is joining E/P/A as vice president of marketing/west coast.

Curtom To RSO For Distribution

can now go out after major signings."

Permanency

Both parties stress the permanency of the arrangement, which includes provisions allowing RSO to eventually buy out Curtom.

"This is not a deal of convenience to run just a few years," says Coury. "Curtom is an important addition to our family and the deal is uniquely structured so that we can buy them out later."

Coury also notes that the agreement falls somewhere between a distributed label and a production company deal. Curtom's one full-time promotion person is being retained by RSO, as are the independent promoters who have worked with Curtom, many of whom have worked RSO crossover records by such artists as the Bee Gees, Andy Gibb and Player.

Another important aspect of the RSO-Curtom marriage is the importance both companies put on film soundtrack projects. Curtis Mayfield has recorded four gold soundtracks LPs and RSO has enjoyed multi-platinum success with such soundtracks as "Saturday Night Fever," "Grease" and "Sgt. Pepper's."

Stuart says Curtom will maintain its headquarters in Chicago, but as part of one big RSO family. "What we're going to do," concludes Stuart, "is give the cow soul."

'Galactica' Album Leads MCA Roster

LOS ANGELES — "The Saga Of 'Battlestar Galactica'," an album of narration by Lorne Green and members of the cast of the television series, heads a roster of five new LPs scheduled for release in mid-January by MCA Records. Music on the album was composed by Stu Phillips and performed by the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra.

Other Releases

Other releases will include: "Bustin' Loose," by Chuck Brown and the Soul Searchers; "The Valentine Brothers," by the group of the same name; "We've Come A Long Way, Baby," by Loretta Lynn and "Ladies Choice" by Bill Anderson.

BGs, Andy Gibb Gold

LOS ANGELES — RSO Records artists the Bee Gees and Andy Gibb recently had their latest singles, "Too Much Heaven" and "(Our Love) Don't Throw It All Away," respectively, certified by the RIAA. The Bee Gees single is from the group's soon-to-be-released album "Spirits Having Flown."

Cars Debut LP Platinum

LOS ANGELES — The self-titled debut album by Elektra/Asylum recording group The Cars has been certified platinum by the RIAA.

EAST COASTINGS

The Fabulous Poodles, a new Epic act. The ads will fold out into pooper-scoopers. Arf!

BACK AGAIN DEP'T. — Peggy Lee will be doing a Cy Coleman song, "Someone Wonderful I Missed," on her forthcoming DRG album. Lee and Coleman, a pair of veterans, have collaborated before, when Lee recorded Coleman's "Big Spender," "Hey Look Me Over," and "The Best Is Yet To Come." Their most recent effort comes from Coleman's Broadway hit, "I Love My Wife" . . . And coming out of retirement February 4 at Alice Tully Hall will be vocalist Anita Ellis, who got her start nearly 40 years ago. Oddly enough, hers is a story that seems very reminiscent of the Broadway play, "Platinum." Ellis appeared in movies like "Babes In Arms" and "Strike Up The Band" with Judy Garland and Mickey Rooney, and provided Rita Hayworth's singing voice in several movies, including "Gilda." She also established herself as a successful nightclub singer before getting married in the mid-'50s. Although she has been retired for nearly 20 years, critics like Whitney Ballard of the New Yorker still rave about her voice, so her Alice Tully date might be a real event.

A BUNCH OF REAL CHARACTERS — Viv Stanshall, former leader of the Bonzo Dog Band, plans to come back with a "comic narrative" on Charisma Records. Viv now lives on a houseboat docked on the River Thames, and his roommates include his pet rats and boa constrictor . . . Lou Reed has been in Germany, recording a studio album which includes three songs co-written by Nils Lofgren . . . Bob Marley reported to be building his own recording studio in Jamaica.

WINNER — This week's winner to our column question, "what do you feel was the most significant musical development of 1978?," is Doreen D'Agostino, a New York publicity staffer for Capitol Records. Doreen cites two events — first, the Rolling Stones appearance at the Palladium; and second, David Bowie's presentation of electronic music at Madison Square Garden. "The Stones played what is now the Palladium 15 years ago," Doreen says, "and it's incredible they came back to prove they're still the best rock and roll band. As for Bowie, I think it's important that so many people at Madison Square Garden were exposed to such a futuristic type of music." . . . Responses are still being accepted.
